Crash kills 2 from GC

Two youths were killed and one was injured when the car in which they were riding went out of control on Steele Hill at Glen Carbon late Sunday night, overturned several times and crashed into a tree.

The dead are Monte Clendenen, 16, of 39 Holiday Mobile Homes, and Philip "Randy" Skinner, 18, of 42 Tampa Drive in the mobile home park.

Kelly Clendenen, 18, brother of Monte, was injured in the crash and was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he underwent surgery this morning for a broken ankle. He was reported in good condition.

Glen Carbon Chief of Police Bill Moore said the accident occurred at the top of a hill on Meridian Road, one mile north of South Glen Carbon Road at 11:26 p.m.

Both Mr. Clendenen and Mr. Skinner were pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Coroner J. D. Laughlin of Troy. Glen Carbon police said the three youths were riding in a Volkswagen driven by Skinner, southbound on Meridian Road, and apparently became airborne as the car reached the top of the hill.

As the car hit the roadway, officers said, it turned end over end several times, crashing against a tree.

Mr. Clendenen was thrown from the car as it overturned, police said. The demolished.

Mr. Clendenen was born in Carrollton, Ill., and resided in this area four years. He attended Grigsby Junior High School.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford (Helen) Clendenen; three brothers, Kelly Clendenen of Granite City, Army Sergeant Charles Clendenen of Fort Riley, Kan., and Michael Clendenen of Jacksonville, Ill.

Also three sisters, Debbie Grabie, Teena and Lauri Clendenen, all of Jacksonville; and grandmothers, Mrs. Bertha Clendenen of Eldred, Ill., and Mrs. Mildred Hurt of Roodhouse, Ill.

Funeral services are pending at a Carrollton (Ill.) funeral home.

Mr. Skinner was born in Granite City and worked as a yard laborer the past year and a half at Granite City Steel.

He was a member of the Gospel Mission church here.

He was married to Mrs. Brenda (Wimberly) Skinner on Sept. 2 at St. Paul Church of the Nazarene on Maryville Road.

He graduated from Granite City High School North in 1976.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skinner of Granite City, his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Kate Skinner of Granite City, maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hershbach of Collinsville; one brother, Robert Duane Skinner Jr. of Granite City; two sisters, Patricia Lyn and Peggy Sue Skinner, both of Granite City.

Concern on second potential waste site

Concern that a second Madison County site may be used in the future as a storage area dumping place for potentially dangerous industrial waste products was expressed this morning by Mrs. Gladys Lewis of Alton, Republican candidate for the Illinois Senate from this area.

Mrs. Lewis discovered several truck trailers parked in a trucking lot off Route 111 north of State Aid Route 35 Thursday afternoon, investigated and found that the trucks contained allegedly toxic chemical wastes.

"She notified news media representatives and went door-to-door in that neighborhood, alerting residents of what she saw as a potential hazard."

On Friday morning, the trucks were moved out of the state, according to Kenneth Hartbarger, central division manager of SCA Services, Inc., shipper of the materials in question.

Hartbarger said there never was any danger from the chemical wastes, generated by industries in the St. Louis metropolitan region.

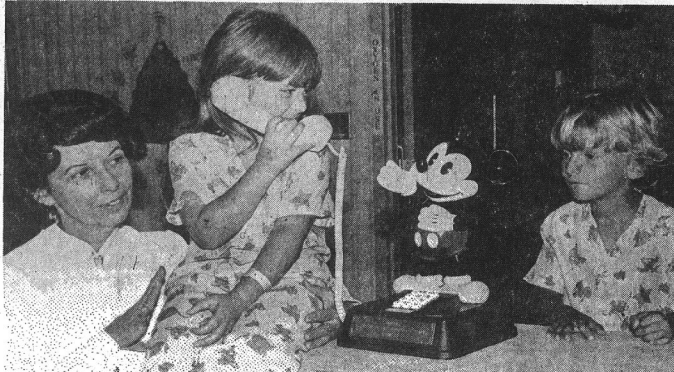

He said the 55-gallon drums on the trucks were primarily industrial plant sludge from auto plants. The sludge is toxic and flammable, but posed no imminent health risk and was under 24-hour guard while in Madison County, he contended.

The industrial waste products were being taken to the firm's Earline landfill in Wilsonville, Ill., but the trucks had been turned back after a ditch was cut across the roadway into the landfill.

The trucks were brought to a lot next to the C. E. Barker Trucking Co. on Route 111 near Ponton Beach until the Wilsonville access was opened, spokesman said.

The Fourth District Appellate Court ruled Thursday that Earline Corp. must stop dumping hazardous wastes at Wilsonville, stranding the trucks here, it was related.

Bus and auto collide

Five vehicles, including a Specialized Services bus full of passengers, were involved in an accident at Ponton and Nameoki roads at 3 p.m. Thursday which resulted in injuries to four persons.

Geraldine Rapp, 28, of Rural Route Two, Box 778, was charged with violating the stop light after her station wagon and the bus collided. Witnesses contended the bus had a green light.

After impact, the bus knocked over a traffic light, struck the car of Mary Kee, 40, of 256 Ivy Lane, which was stopped southbound for the red light, then continued over the curb, struck two wooden posts at Bill's Auto Sales and then pushed the posts over enough for the bus to strike the fronts of two cars on the used car lot.

Mary Dillard, East St. Louis, driver of the bus, escaped injury, but Mary Patterson, 25, of 185 Viola Jones, Homes, Venice, a bus passenger, fell to the floor and injured her head, neck, back and right knee and leg. She was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital and transferred to St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis, where she was admitted.

She was the only person in the bus who was injured. Monte Rapp, 4, son of the driver of the station wagon, suffered visible injuries, but was not taken to the hospital.

Mrs. Kee bumped her head on her car's windshield and suffered head and back injuries. She was released from the hospital after X-rays were taken.

Katheryne Voss, 40, of 1540 St. Clair Ave., a passenger in Mrs. Kee's car, suffered neck and left hip injuries and was admitted to the hospital.

Generous giving to United Way urged

Thanks to you it's working

Campbell, retired AFL-CIO official, who was guest speaker; William P. Winter, UW president; and Mrs. Rea Morrison, labor participation chairman.

Generous giving—to meet the $548,000 goal and move well beyond it—was suggested at Friday's kickoff breakfast launching the fall 1978 Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign.

Both Campaign Chairman William P. Donovan and guest speaker Walter Campbell said there are community service needs exceeding the basic target figure and extending toward $600,000.

Donovan is works manager of the American Steel Foundries plant in Granite City, the world's largest foundry of its type. Campbell is the retired Michigan State AFL-CIO secretary-treasurer.

Campaign vice-chairman is Mickey Chestovich, assistant to the vice-president for industrial relations at the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corp., and George J. Knecht, United Steelworkers of America AFL-CIO-CLC representative.

Describing his open heart surgery in 1970 and citing example of youngsters and adults who also encountered health problems, Campbell stressed that the United Way not only helps the needy but in a variety of ways aids all citizens.

He called for "rededication to the principle of helping our fellow human beings. Your goal is attainable if all accept the objective of people helping people."

Citing instances of service by all of the UW member agencies, Campbell said the United Way unites labor-management, rich-poor, young-old, black-white, all religious faiths and Democrats, Republicans and independents.

Capture 3 after robbery

The alertness of an off-duty Ponton Beach officer resulted early Friday morning in the arrest of three men on charges of robbing the attendant at the Clark Service Station, Route 111 and Highway 162, of $72 in currency and his money changer.

The officer, Jeff Chandler, reported he pulled his car into the service station at 3:30 a.m. Friday to buy a package of cigarettes.

Glen Hardin Jr., the attendant, told Chandler that he was suspicious of three men in a black over white Pontiac parked in the station's driveway, and that he believed they were going to rob him.

Chandler, who was in civilian clothes and unknown as a policeman to the men in the car, drove away after getting his cigarettes and returned unobserved to the Clark station by a back way.

Chandler entered the service station and telephoned for Ponton Beach police officers to meet him behind the station.

The men, who apparently did not notice the Ponton Beach police, drove away, but returned a short time later.

The armed robbers entered the station took $72 in cash and the attendant's money coin changer at gun point, police reported. Not wanting to endanger the attendant the officers let the three men leave the station get into the car and drive away.

However, Ponton Beach Police already had radioed Illinois State police and Fairmont City police the description of the car and the direction of travel.

Ponton Beach police left in pursuit of the car and stopped it at I-70 and Highway 111.

Police said they recovered the money, coin changer and the weapon allegedly used in the robbery.

Bond has been set at $75,000 each on charges of armed robbery.

The three men being held are:

John P. Southard, 26, who told police he was from the State Park Place area, but has no permanent address, Robert Eugene Prince, 18, of St. Louis, and Terry Joe Hart, 25, who gave the police two addresses, one at Collinsville and one in St. Louis.

Pension checks halted by board

The Granite City Firemen's Pension Board decided Thursday not to send any more pension checks to former Assistant Fire Chief Charles Hileman, unless ordered by the circuit court.

George Smolich, president of the pension board, said he does not feel withholding of Hileman's pension checks violates the terms of a permanent injunction issued earlier this month by Associate Judge George Moran Jr. An appeal to that injunction is being planned.

Moran's injunction prohibits the pension board from taking any actions which could endanger Hileman's pension benefits. Board attorneys contended that failure to send the pension checks did not constitute an action, Smolich said.

He noted Judge Moran has indicated he will issue a formal written order on the injunction, but that had not yet been received by the pension board.

"We will follow the orders of the judge, but our members do not feel, at this time, that the judge has ordered us to give Hileman his pension checks. If the written order forces us to, we will," Smolich stated.

He said legal preparations to file an appeal with the Appellate Court in Mount Vernon will begin as soon as the written order is received.

"We plan to pursue every legal means to prohibit him from receiving a pension from the fire department," Smolich concluded.

Hileman resigned Sept. 8, 1977, from the fire department after being indicted by a county grand jury on felony theft charges. He pleaded guilty to three counts of theft for possession stolen collector's items.

The pension board granted him a monthly pension of about $1,020 per month, but later attempts to revoke that pension were fought in court by Hileman, who obtained the injunction when the pension board called a meeting to discuss his pension.

That meeting was postponed until after the court hearing and was held Thursday.

Minimum wage poses inflation problems

By RICHARD L. LESHNER

President, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
Come January 1, 1979, the minimum wage rate is scheduled to rise from $2.65 an hour to $2.90.

Within recent months, this planned increase has been called inflationary by the secretary of the Treasury, the director of the Council on Wage and Price Stability, the chairman of the Federal Reserve Board and Arthur Okun, a noted liberal economist based at the Brookings Institute.

They also warn of adverse effects on already high levels of youth employment.

Conservative economists have been saying the same thing for a long, long time. And yet, Congress is very likely to let the increase take place.

It's easy to sympathize with the plight of the congressmen. If they tamper with the minimum wage, they face a double whammy.

First, they will hear from a chorus of misguided do-gooders, who appear to believe that it is better for a teenager to be involuntarily unemployed at $2.90 an hour than voluntarily employed at something less.

And second, they will hear—much more forcefully—from lobbying legions who have their own reasons for hiding behind an altruistic facade.

A short discourse on those reasons might be eye-opening for some readers. The following explanation was provided at the request of Senator Orrin Hatch, by Temple University economist Walter E. Williams:

"First, we have to recognize, as economists do, that for many activities low skilled labor is a substitute for high skilled labor. For example, a person may be able to build a fence in a day using either one high skilled worker or three low skilled workers.

"The production technique chosen will depend on the alternative costs. Suppose the wage rate for a high skilled worker was $50 per day and that of a low-skilled worker was $13 per day. The firm would be indifferent between the techniques because it would cost $39 to produce the fence using either one high skilled worker or three low skilled workers.

"The high skilled worker could not improve his competitive position unless he could raise his productivity. However, he could, in the political arena, do what he cannot do in the free market. "High skilled workers could advocate a minimum wage law of, say, $20 per day.

"The justification, in order to win political support, would be moral—such as a living wage, 'the prevention of worker exploitation,' 'prevention of poverty,' and so forth.

"Once a minimum wage of $20 per day is legislated, the high skilled worker could now go to the employer and demand up to $60 per day and retain his job.

"He could not have done this with success before the minimum wage; the employer would have just hired the three low skilled workers. In effect, the minimum wage law is a collusion supported by government against low skilled workers.

"Interests that support the minimum wage law find that a necessary part of their strategy is to also support income maintenance programs.

"In other words, if the people who lost job opportunities were starving as a result and rioting, the restrictive activity would be more visible and hence less politically acceptable.

"Therefore, those that restrict job markets also have inducement to support income maintenance and make-work projects such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Food Stamps, Youth Corps, Summer Jobs, etc. These programs are 'crumbs' thrown out to keep people quiet, thereby creating a permanently dependent class in the society.

Americans at large who not only have to pay higher taxes to support all of these programs, but also pay higher product prices as a result of the market restrictions.

"One of the tragedies of all this is that the support for welfare programs gives the appearance to minorities and others that the backers are on their side. This way, they win the political support of those who, they have disenfranchised."

Now you understand what's really behind the minimum wage fight. Shocking, isn't it?

Rural traffic fatalities decline

Provisional figures released by Lynn J. Baird, superintendent, Illinois State Police, indicate that Illinois had 739 rural fatalities this year to date, a decrease of 46 under last year.

Total fatalities were 1,204, a decrease of 108 under last year. There were 204 traffic fatalities in Illinois during the month of August.

District 11, Maryville, which covers a nine-county area had 73 rural fatalities, a decrease of 27 under last year during the same period.

Effective Sept. 1, in an effort to continue the reduction of traffic accidents and fatalities, the Illinois State Police implemented the Concentrated Traffic Enforcement Program, a Federal-funded program utilizing off duty troopers to patrol selected high accident highways during those hours and days of high accident risk.

By strict enforcement of those violations which cause most accidents, the state can achieve a goal of voluntary compliance and thus reduce accidents, it was noted.

Arrest reports from previous programs indicate the most prevalent violation to be the 55 mph speed limit. During the two periods worked this month, District 11 has had no accidents on any CTEP patrolled highways. There were 138 arrests and 238 warnings issued by those troopers working CTEP.

HELICOPTER LANDING
Granite City police were notified at 1:30 p.m. Thursday that a helicopter had landed in the soccer field of St. Margaret-Mary School, near St. Clair Avenue, and officers found a powder-blue helicopter in the field with its engine running and propellers turning. A short time after police arrived, the owner got back in and flew away. Police were told to stop just to talk to his daughter, a student at the school.

BURGLARY AT SCHOOL
A tape recorder is the only thing missing after a burglary at New Logan School, 2400 W. 25th St., which was discovered Thursday. A rock was thrown through a window and entry was gained by opening the window. A sound film-strip projector also was moved near the broken window, but was not taken.

VAN BURGLARY
John Bargel, 204 Missouri Ave., reported at 9 a.m. Saturday that during the previous night his van was entered after thieves broke the vent window on the passenger side. Items taken included a basket full of clothes valued at $100, a $20 pair of jumper cables and an eight-track player worth $90.

Rape report investigated

Madison County sheriff's deputies are investigating allegations by an 18-year-old Cahokia girl that she was raped by a man who was giving her a ride from Granite City to the Cloverleaf area between 5 and 5:30 p.m. Saturday.
The young woman said she accepted a ride from a young man in a blue Ford who was to drive her to Cloverleaf, but he failed to take her directly to her destination, driving around for some time before stopping in some woods, where he allegedly raped her.
He then dropped her off at an Edwardsville Road service station and she notified authorities. A spokesman for the sheriff's department said there are several problems in investigating the case, including the fact that the young woman is not certain where the alleged rape occurred.

"She recalled seeing a sign, which said St. Charles and we are not sure the incident occurred in Madison County. It could have been in Missouri or someone else's jurisdiction," a spokesman for the sheriff's department stated. He said the victim was meeting with detectives this morning in an attempt to clarify questions in the case.

Two armed robbers hit Fina station

Two robbers, one of them armed and decorated as of Mexican heritage with long, black, shoulder-length hair and both about 25 years of age, took an unknown amount of money at 9:27 p.m. Sunday from the Madison Fina Station, 1903 Edwardsville Road.
Ronnie Switzer of East St. Louis, the station attendant, told Madison County Sheriff's deputies that when he entered the main office the two were inside.

One man allegedly pointed a 38 caliber pistol at the attendant and demanded money from the cash register and the attendant.
The robber with the gun warned the attendant not to push the alarm button on the side of the cash register.
After taking the money the robbers warned the attendant to give them five minutes before phoning police and then fled on foot.

Lead screening results in some positive cases

The lead screening program sponsored by the Illinois Association for Retarded Citizens was described today as successful, although the testing failed to cover all of the announced areas to be tested.
Between 200 and 300 children were tested during the three day period ending Friday with only 12 cases of possible high levels of lead being detected.
Dr. Peter Breen, who accompanied the staff during the screening, indicated that the more thorough program, in addition to an ongoing program, is justified for the area.
The programs might help in finding other children having increased lead levels in their blood and attempt to eliminate the source of the lead and beginning proper treatment if necessary.

An attempt will be made in the near future to complete the testing in the areas not covered by the screening last week.
The testing vans will be in the Cairo, Ill., area next week but it will be impossible for the vans to return to this area to complete the screening at that time.
The use of other facilities in the area is being examined and any future screening to be conducted will be well publicized in advance of the testing.

Investigating robbery today

Granite City police took three persons into custody for investigation early today after Gerald A. Fassel, 3504 Kirkpatrick Homes, was beaten and robbed of his wallet and $40.
Officers say they are investigating conflicting stories to determine what occurred, but said Fassel reported he had just left St. Joe's Tavern when at least two young men jumped on him, struck him and took his wallet.
Witnesses said Fassel was found in his car in Kirkpatrick Homes, beaten. They also said some who were fired by a gun in Kirkpatrick Homes shortly after Fassel was found in his auto.
Police sought one man for questioning and alleged he ran out the back door of an apartment, got into a car with another man and was leaving the housing complex when stopped by a police car. The driver then got out and fled on foot, eluding police who chased him.
Officers checked that apartment and alleged finding a gun in a woman's purse which the resident of the apartment said had been stolen from him some time ago.
Later, the man who eluded police was taken into custody in Kirkpatrick Homes and held for questioning, along with the man who had been in the car with him earlier and another Kirkpatrick Homes man.
Fassel suffered bruises and a cut to his face.

Development of coal for energy urged by Lucco

Increased emphasis by the federal government on developing Illinois coal as an energy source to help bridge the energy crisis was urged by State Rep. Joe Lucco (D-Edwardsville) during a meeting with White House advisers in Washington last week.

Lucco told the Press-Record after the meeting that he was among about 10 Illinois residents invited to meet with federal energy advisers Robert Straus and Dr. James R. Schlesinger, secretary of energy, and with U.S. Sen. Charles Percy "to get grassroots opinion from Illinois residents about the proposed natural gas bill now before the Senate."

Percy said he and U.S. Sen. Adlai Stevenson III, who was unable to attend the meeting, were "uncommitted" about the natural gas bill, which was a compromise bill between the U.S. House and Senate, according to Lucco.

The state representative also said he urged Percy to consider the bill carefully and study what can be done to encourage the federal government to do more research into how Illinois high-sulfur coal can be used to aid the energy shortage.

"If I had to vote for this bill right now, I do not feel I could," Lucco said of the natural gas measure. "We ought to try to improve it and change it. It would increase the price of natural gas from about $1.75 to $2 immediately and would continue to deregulate the price over the next seven years.

"To me, it does not solve the energy crisis and creates too many other problems," Lucco added.

Lucco said he "would like to be able to continue to develop a state energy program and look to the national government for help, rather than to have them tell us what to do."

He said he is supporting plans for a coal gasification plant near Wood River which would employ 1,000 persons during construction and 300 after the plant is completed, and would urge a review of EPA pollution standards to allow greater use of the high-sulfur Illinois coal while ways to burn it cleanly are explored.

He also supports plans for a coal blending plant at the Tri-City Regional Port at Granite City which would mix Illinois coal with other low-sulfur coals brought in by barge to create a coal mixture acceptable to pollution control agencies.

The Illinois delegation invited to the administration meeting included state legislators, oil company representatives and members of interested energy groups.

About five or six members of President Carter's staff were on hand for the meeting, Lucco said, noting they apologized the president was unable to attend due to summit talks at Camp David.

Anderson wants support, not fight in GOP ranks

By ROBERT ESTILL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Rockford, is not itching to cross swords with the conservatives in the Grand Old Party's ranks.

For the time being anyway, Anderson would prefer to grind the blades into ploughshares in the hopes of harvesting support for a bid for the GOP presidential nomination.

From his timing, it would appear Anderson is trying to blunt the force of the conservatives, whose efforts to unseat him he successfully blocked in the primary.

Anderson recently announced he has started national explorations to determine if he can muster support for the presidential nomination in 1980.

That announcement came only a month after Rep. Philip Crane of Mount Prospect, chairman of the American Conservative Union, officially announced as a candidate for the nomination.

Anderson said Crane's announcement "had nothing to do with it," and he is not going to engage in a block-the-right-wing battle if he can help it.

"I am going to resist the temptation to try to be postured in the press as the only true defender of the moderate faith or as waging some kind of ideological battle," Anderson said.

"I am looking at this from the national standpoint, from the standpoint of a broad-based party that would include conservatives, liberals, moderates, people of every hue and stripe."

"I want to try and go right down the center. I am not going to try to stop anybody."

Lacking in national name recognition, Anderson said he cannot afford to sit back and wait to see which Republicans declare themselves in or out of the presidential sweepstakes.

There are numerous other undeclared potential GOP presidential aspirants, including several from Illinois.

Gov. James Thompson and Sen. Charles Percy are possibilities, as is former Gov. Richard Ogilvie, who reportedly is considering running as a "favorite son."

But Anderson is hopeful the field of Illinois hopefuls will thin when it gets down to decision time.

Nor, Anderson said, does he plan to hold back until ex-president Gerald Ford decides if he will once again challenge the more conservative Republicans.

"If I were to sit back and wait for all of these people to decide, my own opportunity would be gone because they, for the large part, have the identity I am seeking, have the support I am seeking," Anderson said.

"They can afford the luxury of deferring a decision until 1980. I cannot do that."

Anderson said he is not yet committed to entering the race.

"I have no Kamikaze complex in me that says I want to crash in flames on the deck because I want to be president," Anderson said.

He said he will hold back on any candidacy declaration until he determines if there is sufficient financial and political support.

But if he decides to run, Anderson said he will enter the primaries in an attempt to demonstrate support and make his name better known.

Ever try to sing the "Star-Spangled Banner" and miss the high notes?

Rep. Paul Findley, R-Pittsfield, apparently has.

Findley is considering offering legislation to make "America The Beautiful" the second national anthem.

It would be optional.

The traditional-minded could stick with the "Star-Spangled Banner," which was written by Francis Scott Key in 1814 but did not become the national anthem until 1931.

Rep. Edward Madigan, R-Lincoln, is returning to the National Education Association a controversial $1,000 contribution NEA's political action committee made to his 1976 campaign.

A federal judge here recently ruled illegal NEA's "Reverse Check-off" system in which political contributions were automatically deducted from teachers' paychecks without the teachers' consent.

Under the NEA system, the teacher had to give notice if he did not want the money deducted.

Madigan got an advisory opinion from the Federal Election Commission which said, in effect, the some 200 congressmen who received NEA funds in 1976 could not be held accountable for contributions ruled illegal two years later.

The Illinois Republican said he returned the money because he did not want anyone to have questions about the propriety of his campaign sources.

The National Right to Work Committee, which mounted the court challenge to the NEA practice, has called the FEC opinion a "whitewash" of illegal contributions.

Former Press-Record newspaperman teaches article writing to prison inmates

Gary Kebbel, a graduate of Collinsville High School and a former employee of the Press-Record news room and son of William Kebbel, a printer at the Press-Record, served during this summer as an instructor in Journalism 301 — Article Writing — to inmates at Stateville Penitentiary at Joliet, Ill.

Kebbel earned his degree in Journalism from ISU, Normal, and his master's degree in Journalism and political science from U. of Illinois and is presently working on his doctor's degree in political science and is the Journalism department newsroom supervisor at Northern Illinois University at DeKalb. His mother, Mrs. Jean Wallace, lives in Granite City.

In an article about Kebbel's experiences at the penitentiary, Donna DeVito of the DeKalb News Service, wrote:

"Some have murdered, raped, robbed. And yet they have enrolled in NIU courses. And inmates of Stateville Penitentiary in Joliet, created the 'most exciting, dynamic class' he ever experienced, Kebbel said.

"Stateville, a maximum security prison, houses about 2,500 inmates. About 75 inmates each semester enroll in one or more NIU extension courses. "With no guard supervising a classroom of 31 hardened criminals, it did not take long for the excitement to begin.

"For the first hour I was petrified. But then I realized it showed. So I told myself I'll just have to relax, because I will have to trust them sooner or later," Kebbel said.

"Kebbel and Joseph Parot, associate professor of history, said the inmates were eager to learn. Parot, who taught religious history at Stateville last fall, said the inmates were 'hungry for discussion of religious topics.'

"It was fascinating. It amazed me how learning can take place where conditions are absolutely horrible," he said. Parot added the finality of the prison environment may have caused the inmates to turn to religion.

"Both instructors said differences between NIU students on campus and those who reside in cellblocks. On campus students came out on the losing end.

"Kebbel found his class of 29 black men, one Puerto Rican and one white to be a classroom situation at its best."

"NIU students are like corpses compared to these people," he said. He explained the prisoners did not hesitate to disagree with each other — and with him. His two and one-half hour class sessions contained at least one and one-half hour of discussion.

"Willingness to speak out — they had it. NIU students are too willing to be spoonfed. They (the inmates) did not hesitate to tell me I was wrong," Kebbel said.

"Parot discovered the prisoners were more well-read than the average NIU undergraduate. 'I think some were just very, very bright. They wanted more and more reading.'

"Although they were his prize students, inmates in Kebbel's Article Writing course were given grades of incompletes due to recent disturbances at Stateville Prison. Charles Ren, director of the Illinois Department of Corrections, ordered then-Warden Earnest Morris in July to halt classes, prison jobs and recreational activities.

"Prisoners of rival gangs had taken control of two cellblocks at the time. "Acting Warden A. M. Monahan said in a telephone interview classes will tentatively resume Sept. 15 following the training and assignment of correctional officers (prison guards) to the academic program. He said the prisoners are anxious to return to their normal routine and some inmates, inquired about the rescheduling of summer courses.

"Kebbel's Article Writing course, which met for three of eight required sessions, will resume following relief from the lockup at Stateville, David Grossman, director of NIU's educational services and correctional centers, said.

"Both Kebbel and Parot, who are anxious to return to their voluntary teaching assignments at Stateville, do not face physical danger in the classroom, but could be threatened in the event of a major riot in the prison, Grossman said. An instructor may be taken hostage in such a situation, he said.

"One would hope they (the inmate students) would protect the outsider, but that is a lot to ask," the program's director said.

"The extension program is funded by the Illinois Department of Corrections and by a grant from the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

"Kebbel said he had heard of the program through an article written by one of his Journalism students.

"I figured it would be an exciting teaching experience," he said.

Back program for more space at courthouse

The Tri-City Bar Association has adopted a resolution supporting a plan by the Madison County Board to provide more space in the county courthouse at Edwardsville for support offices for the probate court and as a jury assembly room.

The resolution, adopted last week at a meeting of the bar association, notes that the Madison County Board is planning to purchase property in Edwardsville in which to locate some offices now in the courthouse, thus providing more room in the courthouse building.

The resolution notes, "The Judiciary Committee of the County Board proposes that part of said space be used as support offices for the probate court and as a jury assembly room."

"Be it resolved that the Tri-City Bar Association hereby supports the usage of such additional space as support offices for the probate court and a jury assembly room."

'Crib' death still a mystery

By MARY RICHARDS
Illinois Department of Public Health

The death of a child is always tragic and many parents never fully recover from the loss. The loss of a child through the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), commonly known as "crib death" or "cot death," is, in most cases, doubly tragic.

It is doubly tragic, because most parents of infants who die of SIDS suffer severe guilt reactions. "What did I do wrong?" is their universal reaction.

The truth of the matter is that these parents did nothing wrong, as SIDS is not preventable; it cannot be predicted; the cause is still unknown; and there is no sound or cry of distress... death usually occurs during sleep. An infant who dies of SIDS does not suffer, and death probably occurs within seconds.

Most SIDS victims are between one month and six months of age, and, in the United States, approximately 8,000 babies die of SIDS each year. It is, in fact, the leading cause of death in infants after the first week of life.

SIDS is at least as old as the Old Testament, and seems to have been as frequent in the 18th and 19th centuries as it is now. This indicates that new environmental agents, such as birth control pills and fluoride in the water supplies do not cause SIDS. Despite increased attention to this condition in recent years, the incidence of SIDS is not rising.

Although no one knows what causes SIDS, studies show that suffocation, aspiration (inhaling foreign substances) or regurgitation (vomiting or spitting up) are not causes.

Experts know that SIDS is not a "killer virus" that threatens other members of the family. SIDS can occur in families of every race, religion and living circumstance, and to babies who have the best possible care. It has even been known to happen in hospitals to infants admitted for other problems such as minor surgery.

The experience of putting a happy, seemingly healthy baby down for a nap, and then finding the child dead a half-hour or so later, is understandably, a profound shock to the parents and other members of the family.

Because there is no apparent cause or reason for SIDS, most bereaved parents experience feelings of guilt, anger, frustration and fear. These emotions are normal and understandable, and parents and families need support from those around them in coping with these feelings.

Even if the child had been in the care of trained medical personnel, the death could not have been prevented.

Much research is being conducted to determine the cause of this mysterious condition. In the meantime, it is important that parents of SIDS victims be reassured that they were not at fault.

To help achieve this goal, the Illinois Department of Public Health has not only initiated training programs designed to provide an understanding of SIDS, but is also assisting existing programs which have this same purpose.

These programs are aimed at physicians, nurses, coroners, social workers, ambulance attendants, police officers, clergymen, funeral directors and others who may be instrumental in helping the parents deal with the problem.

The SIDS project is also working with volunteer groups such as the National Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation and the Inter-Infant Survival to Inform and educate the general public about this condition.

You want more information about the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, write to: Illinois Department of Public Health, SIDS Project, Division of Education and Information, 525 West Jefferson Street, Springfield, IL 62761.

Wala-ku-ha Osage campout

Wala-ku-ha means "bring a friend for fun," and the Osage Wala-ku-ha Cahokia Mound Council Camporee means just that, as Scouts are being encouraged to bring a non-Scout to the event.

The three day camporee is going to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 13, 14 and 15 at Camp Sunnen, near Potosi, Mo.

Mark "Pooh Bear" Brayer is the camporee director and he will be assisted by members of the Camp Sunnen staff.

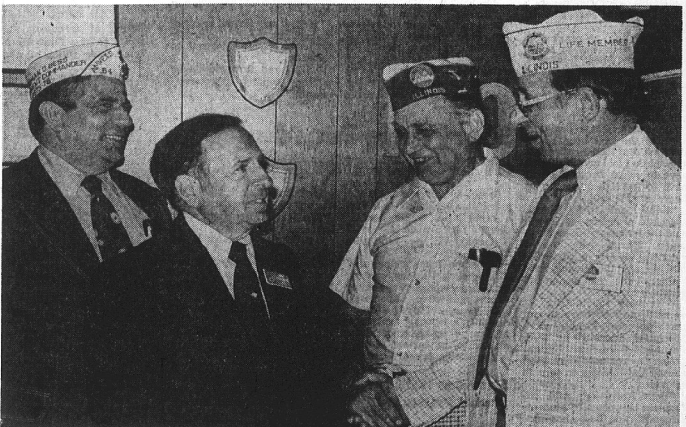

A giant "Wala-ku-ha" stew is being prepared to serve the 300 or more Scouts and friends attending.

Everyone at check in time is to have prepared one peeled and diced potato, one clean diced carrot and one small peeled onion for a giant stew.

The Scouts will be camping by patrols and most of the activities will be by patrols.

Scout skills that will be tested are axe and knife use and safety, knots, physical coordination skills, archery, canoeing, rifle marksmanship and safety, orienteering, finding hidden objects and cooking.

Scouts bringing a friend who is a potential scout will receive a Camp Sunnen T-shirt or belt buckle.

Approve student-senate funds

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees has authorized the SIU-Edwardsville Student Senate to spend $65,000 from the Student Welfare and Recreation Trust Fund (SWRTF) for projects and operations during the current fiscal year.

Meeting on the Carbondale campus, trustees approved funding the Senate's student welfare functions from SWRTF monies, making additional Student Activity Fee resources available to support other student organizations, projects and services.

A summary of proposed SWRTF expenditures for Student Senate functions includes:

Election, $6,000; state student association dues, $2,500; Student Senate special projects, including book referral services, voter registration and anti-tuition increase drives, $3,000; Student Senate administrative expenses, $5,000; transportation, $5,500; Student Senate staffing, $19,132; graduate assistants, $10,000; teacher evaluation, $1,769; student president wage, $5,400; and wage supplement for a research assistant funded through the Manpower Development Program, $3,000.

University officers said the functions and ongoing operations of the Student Senate at SIUE have been multiplying and expanding in scope for several years. During this same period, other student organizations, whose operations and projects are funded through Student Activity Fee monies, have experienced similar growth.

Public trust in public service at all-time low, teachers told

Public trust in public service has reached an all-time low and unless people can be convinced that they are getting a return for their money, the decline will continue, Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, president of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, told a group of teachers from Granite City School District 9 in Granite City last week.

The president said this trend has serious implications for public education.

"These are not times for lazy minds or faint hearts. Money is going to be tight, and enrollments will drop," he said.

"We are going to have to make a powerful case for public understanding that fewer students do not offer an easy mandate for further budget slashing. The expansion of knowledge and the course of history are moving in such a way that education will be a life-long process in which we all have a part to play," President Shaw said.

The University administrator pointed out that as the average life-span rises and families have fewer children, broader segments of the population are found having less of a personal stake in keeping public education strong.

The educator said it is not too much to say that public systems of education, particularly on the primary and secondary levels, could simply wither away. "But it is not too late to prevent that," Dr. Shaw said.

What caused this erosion in public confidence? "Twenty years ago, shocked by Sputnik, the whole country joined in a massive effort at improving educational standards. The Russians certainly weren't going to show us up in the field of knowledge and discovery," President Shaw recalled.

"During the sixties, many in education managed to accomplish one of the most masterful pieces of public persuasion in the history of the nation. We would solve all the problems of humanity if only our budgets were increased," the University administrator said.

Now we are being called to account for all this excess of promise, he said. In spite of all the efforts of the U.S. educational system, America has become a society in which the arts of reading thoughtfully, writing clearly and counting accurately are gratefully obscured, he continued. "It is no wonder that we are now being subjected to serious humiliation," the president said.

"To keep up with soaring costs, mothers are now into the job market. The percentage of working wives and single parent homes has been increasing exponentially in the last 15 years. By the time dinner is over, who has the energy to help a child with homework when it is assigned — or even make sure that homework is being done?" Dr. Shaw asked.

The University president pointed out that far too many young people now resort to television or rock concerts for informational input and emotional stimulation. In his judgment, far too little in the area of basic skills is being demanded by schools and by parents.

Dr. Shaw said in comparison to the rest of the world, the United States has slipped considerably in this area.

"Recent research shows that one of every five Americans can read only with serious difficulty. They can't read a newspaper or magazine, understand directions on household articles or comparison shop for value," he said.

"Teachers and concerned citizens had better recognize that this situation is far more serious than taking second place in the race to put a spaceship in orbit," President Shaw warned. "We are going to have to measure ourselves by tougher standards — the standards by which the public is already measuring us," he added.

In expressing his concern for returning to the basics, Dr. Shaw said, "Emphasis should be placed on teaching our students to manipulate the most valuable property we all hold in common — the language."

"If you can't read, you certainly can't write. And if you can do neither, your ability to communicate on anything above the most rudimentary level is nil," the University administrator stated. He went on to say he believes strong reading habits, constantly reinforced, are the foundation of good, effective writing.

President Shaw pointed out that reading good writing enriches appreciation for it and it only occurs by continued practice and feedback from mentors.

"The educator feels that mathematics is a third area that needs attention in the classroom. 'Progress in counting, computing and analyzing mathematical concepts is a crucial aspect of intellectual discipline,' he said.

President Shaw believes that mastering the basics does not mean other things should be ignored. In fact, he said, strengthening these habits throughout the curriculum to generate the lively curiosity that marks every good student.

The University president told the teachers that SIUE would be very supportive of their efforts. He said, on the basis of their experience, they could help the University do a better job in teacher training. "We can build on your experience, our research and our own understanding, to provide teacher education programs in the basic skills," Dr. Shaw said.

"Our inservice programs can help more experienced teachers update their skills, offering refreshing and reinvigorating new alternatives. We are also going to be developing general education programs that assure that our graduates have mastered the basics," President Shaw said.

Penalties took 185 yards away from the Warriors — 13 of them were 15 yard infractions. "I knew we could turn it around," stated one of the offensive tackles as the Warriors congratulated themselves after their victory. Both teams returned from a loss last weekend. O'Fallon lost to Mt. Vernon 20-14 in overtime and South returned from their loss to Jefferson City. The Granite Warriors won the opening loss of coin and chose to receive. Dave Mahaffey took the ball at his own five yard line and returned it to the 15. Thirteen plays later, quarterback Jeff Parker threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to Lee Heubner. The drive was 130 yards long if one counts the three penalties against the Warriors. Bob Stegemeier's extra point conversion was good and the O'Fallon 17 yard line, Parker was no good, 13-0. South's second touchdown was set up by an intercepted jump pass by Mike "Gut" Thomson. Thomas intercepted the pass on

On a fourth down and four yards to go situation on the O'Fallon 17 yard line, Parker went back to pass, found no receivers, decided to scramble, and crossed the goal line. Extra point good, 20-0.

With 30 seconds left on the clock, O'Fallon quarterback Mike Vaughan, was sacked for

Briggs' return leads Trojans past Clayton

By PETE HAYES
Press-Record Sports Editor

CLAYTON, MO. — The old saying goes something like, "The final score doesn't indicate how close the game was."

Saturday's Madison-Clayton High School football game here was just the opposite. The final score didn't indicate how lopsided the game was.

Captain Nick Jakich's Madison Trojans ran away with the victory over Clayton's Greyhounds, but had trouble putting points on the board enroute to an 18-12 victory.

The game was to have been originally played Friday night in Madison, but was switched to Clayton on Saturday afternoon because of incidents of unrest at Madison High School last week.

It took Kenneth Briggs' 80-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the third quarter to lock up the victory for Madison.

That they did. With 1:33 left in the first half, the Kahoks finally got on the board with a 15-yard score by Don Lacopo and scored early in the second half on Harvengt's 8-yard run. John Lacopo scored later in the third quarter on a 9-yard bootleg and then again in the fourth on an 11-yard keeper around left end.

As Muhammad Ali would put it, the Lacopo brothers were dancing through the secondary like bees... and stinging the Stealers.

So far, so good. But that was like the man who jumped off a 20-story building and, after passing the 19th floor, said so far, so good.

Clayton's Coach Lloyd Dunne blamed the early problems on "first game jitters." But after that, the Kahoks completely dominated the game as the Lacopo brothers and Harvengt rolled up yard after yard. "I thought we had a pretty decent offensive line," Dunne said. "And I knew we would get the rushing."

about six or eight yards a crack at fullback."

The victory was the first of the season for the Trojans and evened their record at 1-1. The loss dropped Clayton to 0-2, the other loss coming last week to the tune of 48-0 at the hands of Principia of St. Louis.

After Hughes had scooted in for the first touchdown of 14 yards, Clayton's Steve Katzman returned the ensuing kickoff 81 yards for the game-tying touchdown. With plays like that, you don't need an awful lot of offense. Just let the other team score, and then you return the kickoff for a touchdown. In this case, and found itself tied with Madison, 6-6.

The second quarter was more of the first for Madison, except that it didn't even cross the goal line. "I think these guys (the Trojans) think they're going to have an easy time with teams like Clayton," said Jakich. "They knew that they'd look 40-0 and figured we'd just stroll in here for the game, play a few downs, and then walk out with the win."

It didn't quite work out that way... in fact Madison almost didn't arrive at the field in time for the game. The team bus driver had difficulty finding the high school in Clayton. When he did, he arrived at another discovery... Clayton doesn't play its high school football games at the high school. They are played on a field on the other side of town.

When Madison finally did arrive at the field, it had just over 15 minutes to dress and get warmed up in time for the beginning of the game.

Early in the third quarter, Madison took the lead at 12-4 when Hughes ran the ball in from one yard out after a sustained Trojan drive that ate up over six minutes on the clock. "That's what I like to see," said Jakich. "We had two or three drives that took up a lot of time out there today. When you can do that and still come out with some kind of score, that's the way to do things."

After the Madison kickoff following the touchdown,

Clayton was unable to move the ball and finally gave it up when running back Steve Kincaid fumbled it deep in Madison territory. But Madison's new life didn't last long. The ball fumbled right back over to Clayton on the next play. The Greyhounds took over with a first down on the Madison 11-yard line.

Two consecutive running plays netted the "Hounds only two yards so quarterback Toft decided to left a lame duck pass as he was being hit behind the line of scrimmage which was caught by Kincaid to again tie the game. This time at 12-12.

But on the extra point attempt, Clayton's soccer-style kicker found the hands of Eric Stanley instead of the space between the goal posts and Madison had blocked the extra point attempt and the score remained tied. But just a few seconds later, it really wouldn't matter.

Briggs took the kickoff from Clayton at his own 20-yard-line, cut to his left, then back up the middle, got a couple of good blocks and was gone, with nothing between him and the goal line.

"That was the game-winner," said Jakich. "It's really good to see something like that just after the other team has done something like that. It sort of puts a little wind back into your sails."

Madison now has the task of preparing for a team it knows very little about. Friday night, the Trojans travel to Bushnell, Ill., for a tussle with the Bushnell-Prairie City Spartans. Bushnell is located in Northwestern Illinois near Macomb.

Jakich isn't taking any chances. "I've heard from several people from around that area that we should be able to handle Bushnell," he said. "But I've heard that line too many times."

"After what happened today, I don't want to go into any game with the attitude that we don't have to work hard to win it."

"We were lucky to get out of this one alive."

BLOCKING THE EXTRA-POINT ATTEMPT by Clayton is Madison Trojan Eric Stanley (43). Also helping out with the rush is Clinton Sensibaugh (54) and a host of Trojans. As it turned out, Madison didn't need the blocked point-after, but at the time, it kept the score tied 12-12 in the third quarter. Madison went on to win 18-12.

Steelers fall to Kahoks, 25-7

By DARRELL DAY
For the Press-Record

The mistake bug didn't hit the Granite City North gridders as hard Friday night as it did in the loss to Cahokia last week, but the Stealers were hit by something else — Collinsville's Lacopo brothers.

The brother combo hit North like Muhammad Ali jabs... a little here and a little there. And before the Stealers knew what hit them, they were on the short end of a 25-7 score and were nursing an 0-2 record.

Halfback Don Lacopo hit North like an uproot, piling up 119 yards and one touchdown in 16 carries.

His brother, quarterback John Lacopo, hit North with 52 yards and two TD's on the ground and 52 yards through the air.

To be sure, North didn't go down without a fight. In fact, the Stealers drew first blood when Kevin Buchanan exploded for a 79-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

But after that it was all Collinsville. The Kahoks, playing in their season-opener because a teachers' strike cancelled a game, began to dominate after that first score. Collinsville's big offensive line began to control the pits and the rest was easy.

The Kahoks amassed 357 yards total offense, including 285 on the ground, while North managed just 145 rushing and 17 yards passing. And the Stealers had just seven first downs to Collinsville's 15.

But in spite of the Kahoks' impressive stats, the team from Granite City was actually in control for the first 25 minutes of the game.

Midway through the first quarter, it looked like it might be a good night for the Stealers when the team held Collinsville on a fourth and two play at North's 21. The play after North took over the ball, Buchanan put the Stealers in front.

After almost getting caught behind the line of scrimmage, Buchanan went up right guard, faked out a linebacker and then spurred through a hole in the secondary. It was just a foot race after that as Buchanan pointed 79 yards down the right sideline for the North score. The touchdown gave the Stealers a quick lead.

Things looked good for North once again on the ensuing Collinsville drive. Behind the strong running of Tom Harvengt and Don Lacopo, the Kahoks drove to the Stealers' 10, but a 15-yard penalty and a pass incompleteness stopped the drive.

In the second quarter, North's defense AGAIN came to the rescue, this time when Collinsville drove all the way to within 12 inches of the score. An illegal motion penalty set the Kahoks back to the six and an incomplete pass on fourth down thwarted the effort. North ball.

So far, so good. But that was like the man who jumped off a 20-story building and, after passing the 19th floor, said so far, so good.

Tennis Cougars to open season this week at Illinois State

By AL BARNES

EDWARDSVILLE — Coach Kent DeMars' Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville tennis team will open its Fall season this week as the Cougars participate in the annual Illinois Intercollegiate Tennis tournament Sept. 22, 23 and 24. The meet will be hosted by Illinois State University at Normal.

The SIUE tennis squad, defending national NCAA division II champions, are also the defending champions in the Illinois Intercollegiate tennis.

Other schools entered in the meet in addition to the host Illinois State netters and SIUE are Southern Illinois U.-Carbondale, Western Illinois U., the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle, Northwestern U., the University of Illinois and Eastern Illinois U.

It'll be a dual match tournament with each team playing three matches. SIUE won the trophy which was held at SIU-Carbondale last year.

DeMars has a star-studded lineup of players returning, including Juan Farrow, who has won the NCAA division II national singles crown two straight years. The other Cougars who helped SIUE win the U.S. championship at San Diego, Calif., last spring are: Arjun Fernando, Granite City Bill Rusick and Scott Whaley, plus reserve Alan Miller, younger brother of veteran Brian Miller who played for Rainier O'Jala of Wisconsin, an All-American, also graduated.

Expecting to more than fill the void caused by the graduation of Miller and Smith are three world-class junior players: Raimo O'Jala of Finland, Farrakh Sidrigi of Pakistan, and Ray Kuzava, New Jersey.

Two other prestigious Fall tournaments are on the Cougars' schedule: Oct. 6, 7 and 8. They'll take part in the Wisconsin-Madison, the Big 10 Conference champion; U. of Michigan; Furman U., Presbyterian College of Clinton, S. C., and Wake Forest U. North Carolina State is the tourney's defending champion and their ace, John Sadri, battled Jon McInroe in a bitterly contested final round NCAA division I tournament battle before bowing out by a 7-6, 7-5, 7-5 score at the nationals at Athens, Ga., last spring.

In their other standout tournament, the SIUE Oak Hill Fall Classic scheduled for Belleville Friday and Saturday, Oct. 27 and 28, the Cougars will definitely have their hands full successfully defending their title.

Entering along with SIUE are SIU-Carbondale, Clemson U.,

U. of Michigan, the Razorbacks of the U. of Arkansas, the U. of Illinois, Colorado U., and U. of Missouri-Columbia.

The Oak Hill tournament will be an eight-team flight meet. Each team's No. 1 plays the others' No. 1 progressing down the list. Coach DeMars' Cougars won the title last year.

"It'll be much tougher this year," predicted DeMars. "For example, Arkansas finished seventh in the NCAA division I ranks last year."

In the Cougars' four dual meets, Illinois U., SIU-Carbondale, Missouri U., and Kansas U., no definite dates have been set.

The YMCA Coed Sunday Evening Volleyball league will be starting on Sunday, Sept. 24, at the Tri-City Area YMCA. However, two additional teams are needed to complete the league line-up. If you have a team interested in joining, or if you do not have a team but would like to play, contact the YMCA Physical Director, Ed Mercer, at 876-7200.

Anyone at all who likes recreational volleyball should contact the "Y" by Wednesday, Sept. 20. Entry fee for this league is $35 (per team).

Madison kickers fall

MADISON — Madison High School was the site for Metro-East Lutheran High School's first victory, 3-0, in interscholastic soccer competition on Tuesday, Sept. 12. Soccer is a new sport at Madison High School and a first for the fledgling Metro-East Lutheran High School. The game was a junior varsity contest between the two schools. Lutheran scored early in the first half on a goal by Randy Willmore and later in the same period, Chuck Gerstenecker added the second tally. Brian Seim capped the scoring by hitting the net midway through the second half.

Goals: 1. Randy Willmore (MEL), 2. Chuck Gerstenecker (MEL), 3. Brian Seim (MEL). The shutout was recorded by Mark Stricker.

There are two Granite City players on the Lutheran High team. They are Jimmy Anderson and Doug Mayer.

Hennrich termed 'outstanding' in ISU fall baseball workouts

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. — The old Abbott and Costello routine of "Who's on First, What's on Second" probably best describes Illinois' State University's baseball team this season.

Cocher Duffy Bass, entering his 16th year at the helm of the Redbirds, may have an idea of just who is on first, etc., but opposing coaches and spectators better hold onto their programs to identify the ISU players. Only 10 letter winners return from last year's 25-19 squad and seven of those are pitchers.

"People aren't going to be able to tell who's playing without a score card," Bass said. "We have had a lot of work to do this season with a lot of new people. We are starting to shape up little by little."

Graduation took six starters from the Redbirds while two others, shortstop Jeff Zitek and catcher Tom Wiegman, signed professional contracts over the summer.

Among the outstanding newcomers to see considerable action in workouts is Granite City South grad

(78) Tom Hennrich. He has been working out at shortstop, a position he anchored for many a game for Conrad "Babe" Champion's baseball Warriors and for Tri-City Post 113's baseball team.

The pitching staff seems to be the strength at present with the return of seniors Tim Miller of New Lenox (Lincoln Way), Cliff Augustine of Meigs Park (Holy Cross) and Darwin Townsend of Plantation, Fla. Miller was 5-5 last season with a 4.75 earned run average in 61 and 13 innings. Augustine was 3-3 with a 2.61 earned run average in 41 and 1-3 innings of work.

Juniors Tim Hallquist of Moline and Dave Arvola of Rock Falls will also return to the mound. Arvola topped the staff in earned run average last season with a 1.32 mark. He was 3-2. Hallquist was 0-1.

Sophomore pitching candidates returning as letter winners are Ray Gawron of Hoffman Estates and Curt Heidenreich of Cary.

"We certainly hope our pitching staff performs up to its best level," Bass said. "They are our most experienced people coming back. We'll have to build out fort around our pitching."

Two veterans return to outfield positions. They are sophomores Steve Koch of Barrington and Mike Mayerok of Arlington Heights. Both hit .278 and four home runs last season. Koch drove in 21 runs and Mayerok 16.

Other outfield candidates include Tom Burg, a junior college transfer from Belleville Area College, Paul Kramer, a transfer from Lincoln Land Junior College, junior Steve Hyland from Fairview and freshman Wes Schoenberg from Rockford. Schoenberg was a member of the Class AA all-state team last year.

Sophomore letterman Dan Wolf of Milledgeville is battling for the catching duties with junior Jim Bedwell and freshman Dick Crain of Peoria (Manual). Bedwell is a junior college transfer from Belleville Area College. Crain was an all-state selection.

Junior College All-American Tracy Anderson appears to have the first base position anchored. Anderson, a junior, hit .414 last season for Lincoln Land Junior College in Springfield.

Sophomore letterman Mike Bock of Ripon, Wis., has switched to the second base spot after seeing action at shortstop and third base as a freshman. A pair of transfer students, Cy Eveland of Matteson and sophomore Dan Linden of Triton Junior College, are handling the duties at third.

Freshman Tom Hennrich from Granite City (South) has been working at shortstop.

Other players likely to see action on the infield are Nate Strickland of Chicago, Walt Manjak of Peru (St. Bede) and Rick Powell of Chicago (Mundelein).

"These players are the ones that have evolved in early practices and are the ones we are looking at now," Bass continued. "We do have others that look very promising."

Bass will get his first look at the Redbirds in action this weekend with a four-game series against Northwestern Illinois at Redbird Field. Doubleheaders both Saturday (Sept. 16) and Sunday (Sept. 17) start at 1 p.m.

Rain cancels area sports

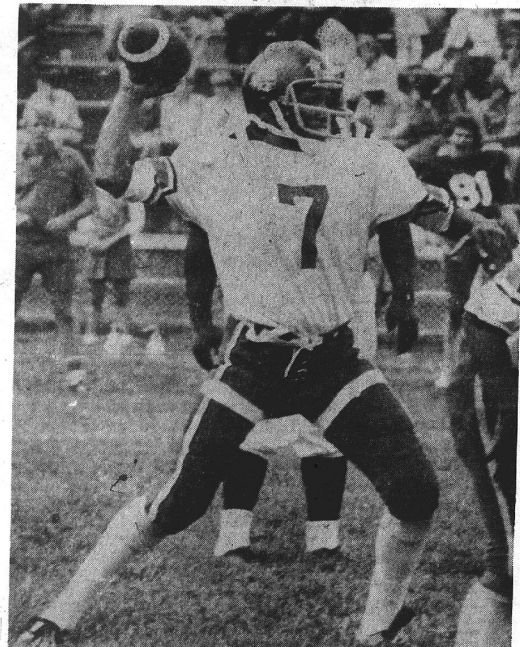

Mother nature was a little early in cancelling area athletics events this school year. Instead of waiting for snow to do this winter, she decided to let rainstorms have a chance.

Saturday thunderstorms forced the postponement of several area events, including some in which Granite City schools were entered. Saturday's Belleville West Cross Country Invitational in which both North and South were entered was postponed and will be run this Thursday, Sept. 21. Soccer games Saturday between Granite City South and Alton and North against Belleville East were also postponed. They will be made up at a later date, but as of yet, no date has been selected.

Finally, the Granite City North Golf Scramble Tournament which was scheduled for Saturday at Arlington Golf Course, was postponed. Plans are being made to hold it at a later date.

Heubner to play for Western Ill.

Jay Heubner, a 1978 grad of Granite City South, is coming off an injury in his senior year in high school but is expected to see plenty of action for Western Illinois' Bulldog football team. The 6-3, 215 pounder has excellent size for a linebacker. "He is a litter and has a good attitude and we expect him to be an excellent linebacker here," linebacker coach Mike Murphy said.

CARLY JACKSON, the Madison Quarterback, gets set to fire a pass Saturday afternoon at Clayton, Mo., against the Greyhounds. Madison's Trojans completely dominated play, but had to settle for a narrow 18-12 victory.

Cougars over Hartwick; fall to Penn State

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — The St. Edwardsville soccer Cougars were 1-1 over the weekend in the Indiana Soccer Classic played here.

Saturday, SIU-E defeated defending national champion Hartwick College 5-0 in a lopsided affair. However, yesterday, the Cougars fell to Penn State University 2-0.

Saturday against Hartwick, SIU-E was never challenged and continually took the action to the Wicks.

Don Ebert opened the scoring for SIU-E when he scored off an assist from Bryan Higgins at the 6:29 mark. Tim Guekler was next. He scored on an assist from Ebert at 9:56.

Jeff Cacciatore took a pass from Matt Malloy at the 26:23 mark and booted the ball past the Hartwicks goalie for a 3-0 SIU-E lead. Guekler then tallied his second goal of the game at the 28:16 mark when he scored after taking a pass from Pat Malloy. Monis Mwongo finished the Cougar scoring when he booted home a goal at the 40:34 mark.

Against Penn State yesterday, SIU-E had several scoring chances, but couldn't convert. However, Penn State's Ken Mac Donald did at the 7:30 mark and Pete Janowski did at the 83:00 mark. Both goals by the Nittany Lions were unassisted.

The next action for the soccer Cougars will be this weekend when the travel to Rockhurst College of Kansas City Saturday and play at Benedictine Sunday afternoon.

North survives Lebanon scare

By PETE HAYES
Press-Record Sports Editor
GRANITE CITY — Mark Jones was ecstatic.

He had just scored his second goal of the game at the 57 mark of the first overtime period here Friday and clinched a Granite City North comeback victory over upset-minded Lebanon. But just over 11 minutes earlier, things didn't appear quite so bright for the Steelers. They were trailing Lebanon 2-0 with 11:17 remaining in regulation time.

But Jones kicked in his first goal of the game off a pass from teammate John Kafalas to bring North within one goal. Just over a minute later, at the 10:11 mark, Jeff Demott scored an unassisted goal to tie the score. Joy returned to Steel City. But North coach Bob Kehoe was somewhat less than overjoyed with his team's performance.

"We came into this thing with the wrong mental attitude,"

Yardstick

North Lebanon	Steelers
Shots on goal	18 7
Saves	5 11
Fouls	18 18
Corners	6 6

said Kehoe. "I could sense it before the game during the junior varsity contest. The guys were just a little too loose. They weren't taking Lebanon seriously."

Kehoe's charges soon found that Lebanon was a team to be reckoned with. At the 17:16 mark of the first half, basketball all-star Shelby Brooks scored a goal off a corner kick to give Lebanon's Greyhounds the lead, 1-0.

Less than a minute later, at the 16:11 mark, Brooks did an encore, scoring his second goal of the day and giving Lebanon a 2-0 lead over the shocked Steelers.

"They (Lebanon) have got some guys on their team who can really fly," said Kehoe, referring to Lebanon's team speed. "When you've got some guys with speed on your line, it can really make a difference."

Overall speed was just about the only thing Lebanon had going for it, besides being fired up while North wasn't. It was the latter which disturbed Kehoe. "I hope they learned something from this game," he said. "You know, at halftime, I sort of had to step out of character and get downright nasty with the team."

"I normally don't lose my temper, but I had already told them before the game not to take this team lightly. I guess they didn't believe me."

When asked of Jones' performance during the game, Kehoe said, "He's a competitor. No matter where I put him, he'll always be around the action. I was very pleased with the way he played."

"At times, it looked as if he was the only one who was playing with intensity."

An added factor in the game was the fact that it had been picked by Kehoe as a playoff-point game. "This win is going to help us," he said. "Because Lebanon's going to beat some people and make some waves."

Playoff points are awarded on the basis of opponent's record. Saturday's game at North with Belleville East was postponed because of thunderstorms and a wet field. It will be made up at a later date, since it is also a playoff-point game for the Steelers.

INJURY REPORT: First forward Bob Bates saw considerable action against Lebanon, but Kehoe wasn't convinced the Steeler standstill is healed completely. "I admire his courage for wanting to get out there," said Kehoe, "But I don't think he's ready to play at full-strength. If the team hadn't looked up to him so much, I probably wouldn't have played him as much as I did against Lebanon." Bates is recovering from a pulled hamstring muscle. Mike Robertson, a North forward, was in street clothes on the sidelines Friday with a bandage around his right knee. It's a nagging injury which was aggravated in North's game against DeMet last week. Plans are being made for him to be examined by Dr. Stan London, a St. Louis orthopedic surgeon specializing in athletic injuries.

Schuler leads South past Tigers

By DOUG IRVIN
For the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Fred Schuler, South senior, went on his very own "warrior warpath" as he scored four goals for South in their 10-1 win over the Edwardsville Tigers last Thursday.

Schuler led the attack against the Tigers with a goal under seven minutes into the game with an assist by Johnny Evans.

Four minutes later, Randy DeRousse took a center pass from David Fernandez to make it 2-0.

In the second quarter, John Brussard passed to Danny Long, who scored the third goal.

With 22:18 gone from the 80 minute game, South led 5-0. Pragma scored unassisted, then Schuler booted in his second goal, this by an assist by Long, 5-0. David Mendoza, an assistant, scored South's last goal of the half.

At halftime, South had 11 shots on goal and six corner kicks. Edwardsville had one shot on goal with no corner kicks. South's Schuler scored two more in the third period, the first was the 46:22 mark and unassisted by Schuler.

DeRousse assisted Schuler on his fourth goal and South's eighth goal just nine seconds later.

In the final quarter, South scored two and Edwardsville tailed one. Bob Mann headed in a pass by Danny DeRousse to give South a 9-0 lead over the Tigers with 14 minutes left in the game.

Three minutes after Mann's goal, Tim DiD scored South's last goal, unassisted.

Tom Blahous of Edwardsville went on a one-on-one situation against South's replacement goalie, Tim Powderly (who came out of the goal to the ball) and won the mini-contest by beating Powderly and scoring Edwardsville's only goal.

Close shave for Kris and Steve

First long hair was "in." Now it's on the way out. Well, KRIS KRISTOFFERSON and STEVE McQUEEN might be responsible for another trend. They have both shaved their beards off. Only time will tell.

While we're on the subject of STEVE McQUEEN, his beard isn't the only thing that has come off.

He is losing a lot of pounds so that his great physique and sexy look, for which he is noted, comes back. Some say it's because of his upcoming film. Others say he wants to look good for A.L.I. MACGRAW, for whom he still carries a torch.

He keeps his romance with BARBARA MINTY as quiet as possible, even when he doubles with son CHAD and his date. It seems he doesn't want to upset all. Steve isn't the only one losing weight.

LAL HINDEN lost 15 pounds for a nude scene he did in the flick, "When You Comin' Back Red Ryder?" He not only wanted to look good in the shower sequence, but he does a heavy love scene with LEE GRANT.

While they're taking it off, CHRISTOPHER REEVE, who stars as Superman in the upcoming film, is putting it on. He has worked night and day at putting 40 pounds of pure muscle on so that he doesn't have to pad his costumes for his role. He wants to look as authentic as possible.

For all of you who think that's hard to do, just think about the next step — learning how to fly.

Rock spans the 'generation gap'

"The Buddy Holly Story" (PG) — Gary Busey portrays the late great rock 'n' roll singer who died in a 1959 plane crash, leaving the world with such songs as "Peggy Sue," "Rave On," and "That'll Be The Day." Busey is convincing as the rising star, at times even reminding the world that he could out-Elvis the late Peasey. Even though Holly was of an earlier generation, today's rock enthusiasts will enjoy this one.

GREEN BEANS

POLONAISE
 1/2 lb. green beans
 1/2 cup water
 1 tsp. salt
 1/4 cup unblanched almonds
 3 tbsps. butter, melted
 1/2 tsp. paprika
 1 cup coarse soft bread crumbs
 1 tsp. chopped parsley
 1/4 tsp. onion salt
 2 tps. lemon juice
 Remove tips and cut beans into 2-inch lengths. Cook, covered, with 1/2 cup water and salt just until tender-crisp, about 15 minutes. Meanwhile, coarsely chop almonds. Toast lightly in skillet with 2 table-spoons butter, stirring frequently, over low heat, until very lightly browned.

Stir in paprika, then bread crumbs. Stir constantly over low heat until crumbs are crisp and browned. Sprinkle with parsley and onion salt. Drain beans and toss with lemon juice and remaining tablespoon butter. Sprinkle with almond crumb mixture, toss lightly and serve at once. Makes four servings.

What to do for that crawly, damp feeling

Q. I own a 2-year-old ranch-type house that has a crawl space with a dirt floor. The walls are cinder block, which show dampness up to the plate and floor joists. How can I get rid of the moisture and keep it dry so the wood will not rot? — W.G.J.

A. It appears that dampness is working up into the house from the crawl space under the floor. Make a careful inspection around the house, especially along the top of the foundation where the sill rests. There may be an opening where moisture could enter. Any such opening should be tightly caulked.

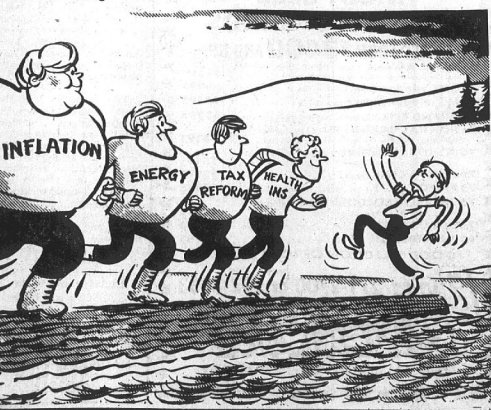

The ground in the crawl space should be covered with sheets of vaporproof building paper or polyethylene plastic, overlapping at least six inches and sealing the seams. This will check dampness rising from the ground.

Insulate the underside of floors with a vaporproof barrier, such as aluminum foil or blanket-type insulation with moisture barriers. Also be sure that the ground next to the foundation slopes away from the house so that water will run off.

Trees and shrubs too close to the house also sometimes cause a problem from their irrigation.

Q. Could you please tell me how Dan Blocker of "Bonanza" died? We are having a disagreement about this. — F.H.

A. Blocker died of a heart attack.

SIU budget $188 million

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees approved Thursday a $188,187,261 operating budget for the Carbondale and Edwardsville campuses and System Office, based on state appropriations and anticipated non-appropriated income for Fiscal Year 1979 which began July 1.

Of the total budget allocations, $71,625,000 will go for instructional activities, $12,861,360 for organized research, $6,446,638 for public service, $18,893,716 for academic support, $17,922,744 for student services, $17,936,191 for institutional support, $15,817,577 for operation and maintenance of physical plant, $35,961 for scholarships and fellowships, $19,772,065 for independent operations, and $6,446,100 for employer retirement contributions.

The budget is projected on estimated income of $124,480,200 from state appropriations and $63,707,100 in non-appropriated funds.

Of the state appropriations, an increase of $11,237,600 over Fiscal Year 1978, the Carbondale campus will receive $85,218,100, Edwardsville campus $58,419,000, and System Office $844,100.

The non-appropriated funds represent a net increase of nearly $3 million over last year, with the Carbondale campus budgeted for an increase of $4,325,400 with a total of $51,821,100, while the Edwardsville campus is budgeted for a decrease of $1,330,600 with a total of $11,886,000.

Funds in the non-appropriated category include income received in support of programs sponsored by governmental entities and private foundations and corporations; revenues received as reimbursement of indirect costs on sponsored programs; revenues from operation of revenue bond financed auxiliary enterprises, principally housing and student center operations; and revenues from other self-supporting auxiliary enterprises and activities which are funded primarily by student fees and operating charges.

The increase in state appropriated funds provided salary increases averaging eight percent for all employees and an additional two percent for low-salaried non-academic employees; price increases of 4 1/2 percent for general goods and services, 10 percent for library materials, 16 percent for natural gas and 11 percent for other types of fuel; $649,700 for operation and maintenance of new space.

Also, $881,100 for new and expanded-improved programs; $36,700 for other special items, including equipment replacement, fire protection, student aid matching funds and Mid-Illinois Computer Center support; and $1,857,000 for employer retirement contributions.

The funds for new and expanded or improved programs at SIUE include $87,000 for the School of Dental Medicine, $65,100 for the School of Nursing, $15,000 for the Bachelor of Science in Engineering, and $20,000 for the Learning Skills Center at East St. Louis.

At Carbondale, funds for new and expanded or improved programs include: $225,000 for the School of Medicine, $115,000 for the School of Law, $250,000 for the Coal Extraction and Utilization Center, $60,000 for the Center for Basic Skills, and $35,000 for the M.S.-or M.A. in Rehabilitation Counseling.

Two die in separate accidents

Tammy L. Lake, 19, of Collinsville, was pronounced dead on arrival at 8:10 p.m. Friday at St. Elizabeth Hospital here following a single-car auto accident.

Madison County Sheriff's authorities reported Miss Lake lost control of her car on State Aid Route 35, one quarter mile east of Highway 162.

A second single-car fatal accident occurred at 11:10 p.m. Friday when 19-year-old Melvin D. Reinke of Bethalto lost control of his car on Illinois 140 east of Meadowbrook and struck a tree.

He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Madison County deputies said he was trapped in his auto for about an hour.

Nameoki Presbyterian youth launch plans

Apple picking, a car wash, assembling medical kits for Thailand are but a few of the projects planned by the Youth Fellowship at Nameoki United Presbyterian Church.

Several youthful members and their sponsors, including the Rev. Don F. Pierson, church pastor, spent two days recently at the Thompson House Retreat Center, where plans were made for many future activities.

The group also attended a Youth Resource Conference at Trinity Presbyterian Church, University City, Mo., and completed its proposed activity schedule at a meeting last week at the church.

Youth Fellowship officers for the coming year are: Becky Corzilius, president; Karen Toussaint, vice president; Andy Pierson, treasurer; and Kathy Toussaint, secretary.

The fellowship consists of junior and senior high school students who meet each Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, according to Pastor Pierson.

In addition to its activity program, members also assist in ushering at the church, work on church committees and serve as greeters at the Sunday morning worship services.

The Carpenter's Fellowship program is open to all young people in the community who are looking for a church home, the Rev. Pierson said.

An apple picking picnic is planned Sunday, Oct. 1, when the young people will travel to Brussels to fill orders for apples requested by the church congregation.

As a fund raising project, the members have scheduled a car wash Saturday, Sept. 23, Miss Corzilius said.

On Oct. 8, fellowship members will serve at a Mission Awareness potluck supper and assemble medical health kits for shipment to Thailand on Oct. 15.

Dramas, movies, speakers, Christmas workshops, mission and college tours are among the events proposed for this year's exciting program. Ray and Judy Hankins, YF sponsors, reported.

The Good News Circle is a group of young, dedicated Christians who share a keen interest in both music and evangelism. The group's presentation of the gospel is two-fold: first an hour long musical package of contemporary Christian music — a style that has been enthusiastically received by young and old alike.

The second part is a proclamation of God's Word by team leader, Bob Laurent. The 30-minute message ends with an invitation to accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. The Good News Circle is a group who believes Jesus Christ is the only solution to the world's confusion, despair and hatred, a spokesman said. The team does not believe Jesus or the Bible need to be defended, rather they need to be proclaimed, he added.

In addition to their own year round schedule of crusades, rallies and concerts, the group also appears frequently with the Billy Graham Associate Evangelist teams. Laurent and the team also appeared with Dr. Graham on the telecast of the West Texas Crusade, which was aired on over 250 stations across the United States and around the world.

UNITED WAY GATHERING Friday morning, launching this fall's drive for $548,000. Campaign participants filled the Township Building auditorium for a breakfast hosted by the American Steel Foundries, Tri-City Trades and Labor Council, A. O. Smith

Corp., Granite City Steel and the Nestle Co. Campaign Chairman William P. Donovan presided.

Multiplying factor projects $191 million assessment here

Real estate assessments in Granite City Township would increase by $13,295,964 for the 1978 tax year under an 11.5 percent multiplying factor that has been projected by Madison County assessing officials.

The multiplier, extended thus far in five of the county's most populous townships, would apply against real estate assessments of $100,116,200 on lots and $15,500,890 on lands for a total real estate assessment of $115,617,090 as fixed by the local township assessor, according to the office of James Barton, county supervisor of assessments.

After a multiplier of 1.115 is applied to this valuation, the township's total assessment on real estate would increase to $128,913,044.

An assessment of $62,706,184 on personal property in Granite

City Township would not be affected by the multiplier.

On this basis, the township's total assessment this year would rise to $191,621,148, made up of the total real estate valuation of $128,913,044 and the personal property valuation of $62,706,184.

Added to this, after local valuations are fixed by the county assessor's office, will be assessments on railroad property in the township, and capital stock assessments, both of which are established by the State Department of Local Government Affairs.

Last year's assessment for Granite City Township as established by the Board of Review was $175,306,930.

The higher assessment could mean higher tax bills in instances where tax rates have been at their statutory maximums and have not been providing the full amount of revenue sought in tax levies. For the most part, however, levies that have been within the maximums are not expected to increase the amount of taxes.

The extension of multiplying factors against township assessors has resulted in protests from some officials. The Wood River Town Board has asked State's Attorney Nicholas Byron to investigate the county's assessing system, and Byron has said that his office will do so.

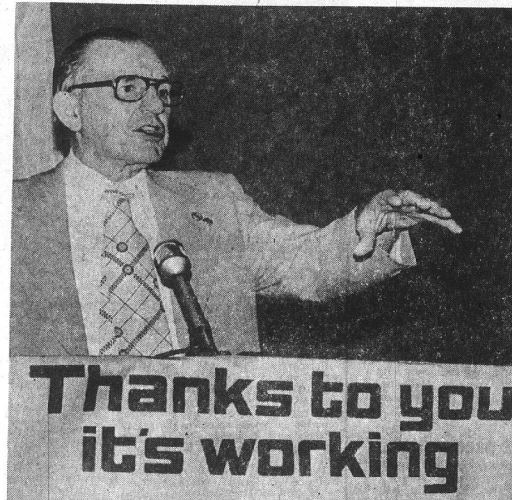

Barton and Review Board members support the multipliers as a means of equalizing the valuations of townships now having a lower assessment ratio than the 93.3 percent of cash value as required by the state revenue department.

They point out that if valuations are certified to the state without achieving a countywide ratio of 93.3 percent, the state will apply a multiplying factor of its own.

That multiplier would apply to all assessments in the county, including those on personal property. The local multipliers apply only to real estate and not to personal property.

Barton's office said multipliers have not been determined for Venice, Nameoki or Chouteau Townships where valuation figures have not been finally determined.

Real estate property ratios are determined by the cash value of real estate transactions that have occurred in the township over the past year.

KICKOFF SPEAKER Walter Campbell, retired AFL-CIO official, addresses the Tri-Cities Area United Way kickoff breakfast gathering Friday at the Granite City Township Building. He called for efforts by people of all walks of life to send this fall's campaign over the goal.

Granite City police are continuing a crackdown on students gathering in Wilson Park near Granite City High School South in the mornings before and immediately after the start of classes who are smoking or possessing marijuana.

Wednesday, a 16-year-old was arrested and two others were reprimanded and ordered back to school after officers allegedly saw them with binoculars looking at a plastic bag full of marijuana.

When police approached, one boy put the bag under a trousers leg where it was found. The boy was released to his mother on a notice to appear before juvenile authorities.

Thursday, near the same ball diamond bleachers, officers searched two boys and alleged finding marijuana in a 16-year-old's shirt pocket.

At the police station, the boy allegedly admitted he had been selling marijuana cigarettes and a total of 43 marijuana cigarettes were found in his possession.

Officers said that after the bag of marijuana was found in the boy's shirt pocket, he was taken to the police station for a more thorough search.

It is alleged that when he was being taken from the car into the station, he dropped a plastic bag containing 15 marijuana cigarettes on the floor. Another bag was found in the left rear pocket of his trousers and another bag was in his left sock, officers said.

The cigarettes and 8.2 grams of marijuana found loose in a bag totaled 36.8 grams, officers alleged. The marijuana was sent for laboratory testing, after which the boy may face juvenile court action.

Granite City on Army recruiting duty here

Private John Judy of Granite City has an Army assignment right in his home town. For the next 30 days, he will work as a recruiter aide at the Army Recruiting Station, 3576 Nameoki Road, where he enlisted.

Pvt. Judy will assist Staff Sergeant Larry Baker, who originally enlisted him, and the other recruiters at the station. His chief duty is to link the Army recruiters in Granite City with the young people of the area.

Pvt. Judy will talk about his Army experiences with interested seniors at area high schools, including Granite City North High School, where he graduated in 1970.

John participated in track, and was a member of the German Club, the National Honor Society, the Science Club and the Quill and Scroll. Staff Sgt. Baker said.

"He was also business manager of the school newspaper, the North Star," Pvt. Judy is the son of John and Thelma Judy of Granite City.

Why did Pvt. Judy join the Army? "I wanted to be a policeman," he explains, "and the Army offered me the best training and experience and guaranteed it to me." Pvt. Judy plans to make the Army his career. "It's a good place to stay," he explains.

Pvt. Judy undertook basic and advanced individual training at Fort McClellan, Ala. He trained as a military policeman, and will serve in Germany after he completes his Granite City assignment.

Both the skill training and the assignment location were chosen by Pvt. Judy and guaranteed to him in writing by the Army when he enlisted.

It was during advanced individual training that Pvt. Judy was approved for recruiter aide duty. The program is highly competitive, and selection reflects outstanding ability.

Pvt. Judy is on hand at the Granite City Army Recruiting Station to talk with interested young people about his experiences as a recent Army enlistee. He and the recruiters will be glad to discuss the skill training, educational assistance, travel options, and many other benefits the Army offers. They may be reached at 876-2626. Out of town, residents may call collect.

Census survey planned here

Questions on spending for the improvement and upkeep of residential properties will be asked of a sample of households in this area by U.S. Bureau of the Census interviewers between October 2-13, 1978.

Pullin, director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Kansas City, has announced.

The home improvement survey, conducted four times a year, yields valuable information of broad interest to the public and private sectors.

The households in this area are among approximately 5,000 throughout the United States included in the survey. The law required that personal information reported to the Bureau of the Census must be held in strictest confidence.

Published reports show statistical totals only, and no information identifying individuals or households is released.

Census Bureau interviewer for this area is Mary Lou Gallagher of Edwardsville.

Social Security underfinanced; amendments to reduce benefits

By A. HAEWORTH
ROBERTSON
Former Social Security
chief actuary

The Social Security Amendments of 1977 made important revisions in the Social Security program.

These amendments are generally considered to be the most significant social security legislation since 1972, and possibly since 1950.

Under the old law future generations of workers would have received progressively higher levels of retirement benefits, relative to their preretirement earnings, than today's generation receives.

The amendments revised the method of determining benefits so this would no longer be true. In fact, benefits will be about five percent to 10 percent less generous for the majority of future recipients than for today's recipients.

There will be an even greater reduction in the case of death and disability benefits payable with respect to relatively young insured persons. Of course, these changes reduced the future cost of the program.

The amendments provided for extraordinary increases in the maximum amount of earnings used for computing benefits and assessing taxes during the period 1979-81.

Thus, in 1981 and later approximately 81 percent of the total payroll of persons in covered employment will be subjected to tax and recognized in determining benefits (compared with 58 percent at present).

This change increased the income more than it increased the benefit payments.

The amendments increased the tax rates themselves as well as the earnings which are taxable.

The tax rate for both employees and employers under the Old-Age, Survivors, Disability, and Hospital Insurance programs combined is 6.6 percent in 1978.

The new law provides for a gradual increase in this tax rate, beginning in 1979, to an ultimate level of 7.65 percent in 1990 and later.

Tax rates for the self-employed are scheduled to increase from 8.10 percent in 1978 to 10.75 percent in 1990 and later.

But even after all these changes, the Social Security program is still significantly underfinanced.

To pay for the benefits which have been promised, taxes paid by the employee and the employer must continue increasing beyond the level of 7.65 percent in 1990.

The tax rate must increase to approximately 8 percent by the year 2000 and 12 percent by the year 2025. The ultimate tax rate for the self-employed must become about 16 percent.

These future tax rates are based on the "intermediate" assumptions utilized by the trustees of the Social Security program.

Actual future tax rates will be different from these estimates but it seems more likely that they will be higher than the estimates than that they will be lower.

The Social Security program, however, is only one component of the myriad of employee benefit systems which have grown up over the years in an attempt to satisfy the needs generated by an individual's illness, disability, old age or death.

There are numerous other employee fringe benefits and income maintenance programs: workers' compensation, unemployment insurance, private retirement insurance, group life and medical insurance plans, sickness benefit plans, among others.

The steadily growing cost of these systems may well be developing into an unsustainable burden. If this is true, the only conclusion is that the problem itself must be changed.

Some way must be found to reverse the present trend whereby the inactive population is growing at a faster rate than the active working population. It seems highly unlikely that the active working population, already chafing under the yoke of today's burden, will be able and willing to assume the heavier burden projected for tomorrow.

In seeking ways to change the dimensions of the problem, the nation's concept of work, education, leisure and retirement should be reviewed carefully.

It should be presumed that an individual will engage in gainful employment suitable to his physical and mental condition until an age well beyond age 60 or, perhaps even until the end of his life.

Such a trend may be a natural development as health and life expectancy improve, and as the growth in the work force slows because of the low fertility rates now being experienced and expected to continue in the future.

Still, significant changes will be required in existing social and economic arrangements. The nation must take appropriate action to provide an environment in which the capabilities of each individual can be utilized effectively, an environment which fosters meaningful activity, not empty idleness.

Both the incentive and the opportunity should exist to enable every individual to work and produce throughout his lifetime in a series of endeavors compatible with his changing physical and mental abilities.

Governmental policies should be directed toward these goals and not toward the removal from the active work force of able-bodied persons who must then be supported by the remaining active workers.

Jobs must be structured so they are more meaningful and satisfying to the individual. Persons must undergo training and retraining to enable them to have not just second careers, but third and fourth careers.

In some instances jobs must be designed to fit the capabilities of the human resources available.

For older persons as well as disabled persons, less strenuous jobs and part-time employment must be made available.

Significant advances will be required in our ability to match persons with jobs. Sometimes this can be achieved with one employer, but in some cases it will involve many different employers and may require geographical relocation as well.

These changes must begin to take place during the next 10 years, and they must be well under way by the turn of the century when the children of the post-World War II baby boom begin to reach the 40s and 50s.

Bringing about these changes will be a slow process which will require the cooperation of many institutions, not just Social Security.

The first step in this process of change was the recent action by Congress prohibiting an employer from imposing mandatory retirement at an age lower than age 70 (with certain exceptions). This action was coincidental and was just another step in the direction of eliminating job discrimination altogether.

Nevertheless, it fits in well with the eventual need for a more complete utilization of the nation's human resources.

As time goes by and health of the elderly improves, further increases in the mandatory retirement age may be advisable.

But the Social Security program effectively dictates the retirement policy of the nation and, since the program itself fosters a policy of relatively early retirement, Social Security must be revised.

The mere existence of the Social Security program in its present form sets a standard and thus creates an expectation, which then fosters a process of entitlement, for retirement in a person's early to mid-sixties, regardless of the condition of his health and his ability to continue as a productive and useful member of society.

The Social Security program thus creates some of the needs it purportedly exists to serve.

To some observers, major changes in the Social Security program are out of the question because of the size and scope of the program and because it is so firmly established.

On the other hand, 53 percent of the present population consists of those born after World War II, persons who are now under age 33.

These young persons will begin reaching their 60s just 28 years from now in the year 2006. It is today that a general framework should be constructed regarding the type and level of benefits to be provided, the source of benefits and the approximate age at which benefits will commence.

In making these choices the nation must not be influenced unduly by decisions made in the past and by different generations of people living under different circumstances.

It will not be easy for the nation to move in the direction of full utilization of its human resources and thus bring under control the rising cost of supporting the inactive population.

The alternative, however, will be even more difficult: continued high unemployment and underemployment, an ever-increasing pool of idle "disabled persons" and "aged persons," and a total cost to society which will become destructive.

Illinois Power Co. has announced the 126th consecutive quarterly dividend on its common stock. The action was taken by the firm's board of directors which declared a dividend of 57 cents per share on the common stock of the company.

The board also declared regular quarterly dividends of 51 cents per share on the 4.08 percent cumulative preferred stock, 52 1/2 cents per share on the 4.20 percent cumulative preferred stock, 53 1/2 cents per share on the 4.26 percent cumulative preferred stock, 54 1/2 cents per share on the 4.42 percent cumulative preferred stock, 56 1/2 cents per share on the 4.70 percent cumulative preferred stock, 58 1/2 cents per share on the 4.84 percent cumulative preferred stock, 60 1/2 cents per share on the 4.94 percent cumulative preferred stock and $1.00 per share on the 8 percent cumulative preferred stock.

These dividends are all payable Nov. 1 to stockholders of record on October 20.

SIUE name for math department changed

A change in name for the department of mathematical studies at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was approved Thursday by the SIUE Board of Trustees.

The unit within the School of Science and Technology has been renamed the department of mathematics, statistics and computer science.

University officers said the change would describe more accurately the programmatic structure of the department, which includes separate options in mathematics, statistics and computer science.

The action will be reported to the staff of the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

UFOs topic of lecture at BAC

The Bermuda Triangle — UFO's — and other strange phenomena... is there an explanation for them? John Wallace Spencer, author of Limbo of the Lost and UFO's: Nothing of the World will disappear, will discuss that question at Belleville Area College on Wednesday, Sept. 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Spencer, a former member of the National Investigations Committee on Aerial Phenomena, has chronicled the mysterious loss of ships and planes in an area of the Atlantic Ocean and Gulf of Mexico known as the Bermuda or Devil's Triangle in his book Limbo of the Lost.

Spencer's lecture, sponsored by the Student Activities Committee at Belleville Area College, is free and open to the public. Spencer accompanies his talk with an extensive slide collection.
